World History I/ Mr. George

Letter to Self – 50 Points

You are going to write a brief letter to yourself at the conclusion of your first day of high school. The letter will be one that you will receive back from Mr. George just prior to your high school graduation (May of 2021). The letter will be between 200-300 words. Ensure your name is included in your letter.

- The letter will respond to your life and your world.
- Address it to “Dear Graduating Senior,”

Respond to some or all of the following questions:

1. Describe your expectations of high school.
2. What do you hope to achieve in high school?
3. What are your goals academically and outside of academics?
4. List three words you think will describe your high school experience and explain why.
5. What will you enjoy the most?
6. What do you think will be some of your greatest challenges in the next four years?
7. What do you think your world will look like in four years?
8. Do you think the world will be more peaceful or have more conflicts in four years? Why?
9. Explain the type of world you’d like to see in four years.
