Term 2 DBQ: CLASSICAL WESTERN CIVILIZATIONS COMPARISON (200 POINTS)

Question: Which civilization, Greece or Rome, more effectively reflects the political, social and economic makeup of the United States?

Thesis Template:

You can create your own thesis or you can use the template below in which you'll need to fill in the blanks based on your evidence.

Ancient _____ more accurately reflects the _____ and _____ makeup of the United States compared to ancient _____.

DIRECTIONS

You will write a well-organized essay in MLA format proving your thesis. The essay should be logically presented and should include information both from the enclosed documents and from your knowledge outside the documents. You will write an Introduction and three body paragraphs. You will NOT write a conclusion.

ESSAY STRUCTURE AND FORMAT

- This essay must be FOUR paragraphs and No Longer than 3 Pages (any additional pages will be ignored)
- Essay must be typed in MLA format: double-spaced, 12 pt. Times New Roman font and 1" margins
- Thesis statement must be underlined and will be the last sentence in your introduction.
- When citing the documents in the essay, place the document number in parentheses after referring to it. For example: "The Colosseum was a central gathering place for entertainment" (5). Do not use, "In Document 5..."
- Feel free to use the Methodology of LQEA for each DD, but you will not include the letters in your paper.
- AVOID PLAGIARISM. This should be your work.
- Provide a physical copy and submit paper to Turnitin.com. Late policy: Both steps need to be completed on the due date of the paper. Physical paper is due at the beginning of class. Paper must be submitted to turnitin.com by the beginning of class. (-5 points/day for no physical copy / turnitin.com)
- There is No Works Cited Page

Three body paragraphs: (1) Social – (2) Economic – (3) Political

- One must reflect either Greece or Rome (1st body paragraph) - weaker
- Two must reflect the one not chosen in 1st body paragraph (2nd and 3rd body paragraph) - stronger

This packet and checklist below is intended to simplify the DBQ process and keep you on track while meeting deadlines.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BEYOND THE DOCUMENTS (OUTSIDE KNOWLEDGE)

The documents provide you with only fragments of evidence. Answers should include relevant information from beyond the documents—information that you have learned from our study of Greece and Rome.

	Advanced (A)	Proficient (B)	Needs Improvement (C)	Unsatisfactory (D)	Failing (F)
Introduction	Concisely sets stage with appropriate background	Places topic in proper historical context	Does not successfully frame subject of the essay	Background is inadequate	No stage set
Thesis Statement	Thesis is complex, creative and engaging DI1 ● DI2 ● DI3	Thesis shows understanding of complexity, has multiple parts and/or acknowledges both sides	Thesis is a clear answer to a question, however may be one sided, or parts may be off topic DI1/DI2/DI3	Thesis does not directly or completely answer the question	Thesis is incorrect or off topic/missing question
Content Focus	Displays mastery of relevant events and issues. Good use of outside knowledge to make argument.	Shows a solid understanding of major events and issues. Some use of outside knowledge to make argument.	Shows basic understanding of events and issues, but has some gaps. Limited use of outside knowledge to make argument.	Displays little understanding of events and issues. No use of outside knowledge to make argument.	Includes either events or issues or neither.
Organization and written expression	Well organized. Topic sentences clearly support thesis. Flawless mechanics with consistent connection among DDs/DIs	Organized. Topic sentences generally linked to thesis. Mechanically correct with only minor errors	Some organization of information. Topic sentences may be facts. Significant errors in mechanics of writing	Ideas may be groups but not tied to thesis. Problems with mechanics interfere with comprehension	Disorganized. Little attention to structure. Mechanics make comprehension difficult
Evidence/ Citations	Incorporates detailed and sophisticated textual evidence with (context) smooth lead-ins	Includes adequate, relevant and accurate textual evidence. May contain minor errors in citation format	Includes textual evidence that is minimal or irrelevant. May contain significant errors in citation format	Insufficient textual evidence present. Major errors in citation format	Little or no textual evidence. Errors demonstrate lack of comprehension in proper citation
Analysis	Insightful analysis demonstrates depth of understanding. Consistent, focused, persuasive analysis. You add to the evidence used and support main idea instead of repeating what was said	Solid analysis focused on answering the question. Analysis clearly and directly linked to topic sentences	Little analysis. Does not explicitly link evidence to topic sentences	Writer assumes the evidence will answer the question. Insufficient focus on supporting topic sentences	Analysis is lacking or confused. Insufficient focus on answering the question
Conclusion	Summarizes main point and evidence. Effectively raises and answers the question "so what?"	Summarizes main point and evidence and addresses broader significance	Restates thesis/not fully developed. Does not answer "so what?" question	Simply repeats thesis/or is missing summary of argument. Conclusion is vague	Lacking a conclusion

Document #4 Source: The Delian League To The Athenian Empire by Thomas Ash, 2000 C.E.

Initially the Delian League was a fairly loose coalition of states, each one independent and sharing a common interest with the others. Members of the league were numerous: Thucydides tells us that they included "Chios, Lesbos, Plataea ...most of Acarnania... Ionia, the Hellespont, Thrace and the islands between the Peloponnese and Crete towards the East, and all the Cyclades except for Melos and Thera" as well as Aegina and most of the Euboean cities. Together, these states constituted a formidable force capable of achieving its objectives.	http://www.ancientsource.home.ml.org <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Delian League Areas where revolts occurred Foreign States Athenian Colony Major Poleis

Document #9 Source: Excerpt from The Conspiracy of Catiline: Decline of the Republic by Sallust (86-36 B.C.). Sallust was a tribune of the people in 52 B.C and a close supporter of Julius Caesar.

As soon as wealth came to be a mark of distinction, military commands, political power, and virtue began to decline. Poverty was now looked upon as a disgrace and a blameless life as a sign of ill nature. Riches made the younger generation a prey to luxury, avarice, and pride. Squandering with one hand what they grabbed with the other, they set small value on property while they coveted that of others. Honour and modesty, all laws divine and human, were alike disregarded in a spirit of recklessness and intemperance. To one familiar with mansions and villas reared aloft on a scale that they look like so many towns, it is instructive to visit the temples built by our godfearing ancestors.

Document #13 Source: Paul of Tarsus, died c. 65 A.D., from the Bible’s New Testament: Romans 1:13-17

13 I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,[a] that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now) in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.
14 I am obligated both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. 15 That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.
16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. 17 For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.”

Footnotes:

[a] Romans 1:13 The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God’s family.
